This particular psalm is quoted _____ times in the NT with reference to Jesus.

In this psalm, David reaches beyond his own experiences to the future sufferings of _____.

The one being discussed is making his _____ known, yet no one seems to be helping, not even God (Ps 22:1-2, Mt 27:46).

His _____ had looked to God in their time of need, and God was always there for them (v.3-5).

The people _____ him to the worst kind of humility and insults (Ps 22:6-8, Mt 27:38-44).

His heart is like melted _____, losing its form. Medical science will tell you the heart and body would take on _____ in times like this (v.11-16).

The guards cast _____ for his clothing (Ps 22:17-21, Mt 27:35, Mk 15:24, Lk 23:34, Jn 19:24).

He praises God as though His _____ has been answered (v.22-26).

God's goodness will now be _____ to everyone who would receive it (v.27-31).

Life Lesson:

We learn to _____, even when we are overwhelmed.

In any crisis that comes our way, we should pray to God and _____ Him for who He is and what He does.

Remember God's faithfulness to His people in times past and know that God does not _____.
