

Confessions of a Harlot

Joshua 2:1-7

08/08/10 PM

Chad Martin

Rahab confessed that she had heard about the _____ of God and how God delivered His people from Egypt.

Rahab acknowledged _____ God.

Rahab's knowledge was based upon hearing what God had done for His _____.

Rahab exhibited her _____ by hiding the spies, deceiving the king's men, and trying to enter into a covenant with God's people.

She is in the lineage of _____.

All Rahab sought was _____.

When offered the terms of protection she _____ them.

APPLICATION:

Salvation has never been the exclusive property of one _____ of people.

God has always honored faith more than _____.

Rahab did everything she could to seek a relationship with _____ and His people.

What if Rahab walked in our _____ today?