Joseph was a man with a _____ past.

Just because Mom and Dad wind up becoming _____ doesn't mean you have to.

A bad environment doesn't have to control your _____ making process.

Joseph had been _____ by his family.

The _____ was with him (Gen 39:1-2).

If you are allowing the past to dictate your future, you need to change _____.

Even with all the events in his past, he still walked _____ in the sight of God.

Rather than trying to rationalize why he could do it, he saw why it was _____ to do it.

Sometimes God has to take you _____ in order to bring you uphill.

God knows exactly _____ we are.

For at least 13 years, Joseph had a really _____-up life.

God gave Joseph a new _____.

"The problems in your past should become object lessons to show you where you need to be _____, not excuses for you to repeat them."-Tony Evans
