

Struggling with God's Justice

Habakkuk 1:1-4

Chad Martin

Habakkuk believed in God and was fully convicted in God's _____. It seemed that _____ was being denied.

His frustration was a result of his firm faith in God's righteousness, which did not fit with the _____ of everyday life.

God's Response:

"I am raising up the _____."

The Chaldeans trusted in _____ (v.7).

While God allowed their destructive desires to be used to accomplish His _____, He also punished them for their actions.

God is in _____.

"But as for you, you meant _____ against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive" (Gen 50:20).

When friends fail, enemies surround and injustice seemingly _____ remember that God does not sleep. God is in control.

"Do I really want God to bring His _____ to our shores?"

The destiny of any nation that forgets God will be the same as that of _____.

"Though the fig tree may not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines; though the labor of the olive may fail, and the fields yield no food; though the flock may be cut off from the fold, and there be no herd in the stalls—<sup>18</sup> Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. <sup>19</sup> The LORD God is my strength; He will make my feet like deer's feet, and He will make me walk on my high hills" (Hab 3:17-19).
